Children In Need

Next Friday 14th November we will be supporting BBC Children in Need by holding a non uniform day in school.

Children will be invited to come to school wearing an outfit of their choice in exchange for a donation of £1. Please make sure that your child comes to school wearing sensible shoes- no heels please. We will also be selling Pudsey Bear Cookies which the children can buy for 50p if they would like to.

Parents Evening

Letters will be coming home next week for parents to sign up for Parents Evening appointments. This is an opportunity to find out how your child is currently doing at school and any areas they may need support with. Please sign up for these.

Anti Bullying Week

Next week is Anti Bullying Week and we will be focussing on this in school. The theme for the year is Power for Good and we will be reminding children and adults that we all have the power to make a positive difference by standing up for others, speaking out against bullying and spreading kindness.
